PROJECT

Restoration

Home House

Designed by James Wyatt and Robert Adam, the buildings had been unoccupied since the late 1980's and were on the Buildings at Risk Register.

Feilden+Mawson were appointed as lead consultants for a full restoration programme. Work included installation of new kitchens, lifts, bathrooms and bedrooms, disabled access provision, the conservation and restoration of the fine rooms, re-roofing, detailed fire strategy, re-servicing and suppression of dry rot.
